

CVC's Family Music Theatre Presents "Little Women: The Broadway Musical"

LANCASTER, Texas — Regarded as an American classic more than 140 years after the novel was published, "Little Women" has made a smooth transition to the stage, captivating audiences on Broadway and across the nation. Cedar Valley College's (CVC) Family Music Theatre will bring this renowned musical to its stage February 29, March 1, 7-8 and 14-15 at 7:30 p.m. The musical will be presented in the college's performance hall located at 3030 N. Dallas Ave. in Lancaster. Saturday matinees begin at 1:30 p.m.

Based on Louisa May Alcott's own family experiences (and novel), "Little Women" follows the adventures of Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy March as they grow up in Civil War America. The beloved story of the March sisters is timeless and deals with issues as relevant today as when they were written. Now, this wonderful narrative comes to life in this exhilarating musical filled with glorious music, dancing and heart. "Little Women" embodies the complete theatrical experience, guaranteeing a night filled with laughter, tears, and a lifting of the spirit. This powerful score soars with the sounds of personal discovery, heartache and hope—the sounds of a young America finding its voice.

Tickets are available through the college's business office and are $10 for adults, $6 for senior citizens ages 55 and older, and $5 for children ages 4–12. Tickets can be purchased by credit card by calling 972-860-2994. For more information, please call 972-860-7444, ext. 9302.
