Cedar Valley College is Host Site for HBCU College Fair

LANCASTER, Texas — Come one, come all! All Dallas-Fort Worth area students, parents and educators are invited to attend the Dallas Metroplex Council of Black Alumni Associations' Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) College Fair on September 8 at Cedar Valley College.

The fair, which runs from 9 a.m.–1 p.m., will provide the opportunity to meet representatives from the United Negro College Fund, as well as HBCU alumni and recruiters from 20 public and private schools from across the United States, including Tuskegee University, Tennessee State University, Grambling State University and Paul Quinn College. In addition, workshops will be offered on financial aid and information on scholarships will be available.

Cedar Valley College is located at 3030 N. Dallas Ave. in Lancaster. For more information, please call 972-220-0477 or e-mail dmcbaa@yahoo.com.

###

The Dallas Metroplex Council of Black Alumni Associations (DMCBAA) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization founded in 1987 for the purpose of promoting and supporting Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Our goal is to promote unity and improve relations among alumni organizations from HBCUs, and to promote and increase attendance at HBCUs.
